

CURRICULUM VITAE MARIOS E. MENEXIADIS

Dr Marios Menexiadis is an economist and expert in Internal Audit Services. Currently, he is the Group IA Director for Aegean Airlines and a Non Executive Director at the Board of Directors of Olympic Air. Prior to that, he has been the Group IA Director for PLCs as Neochimiki (24 commercial companies, production units and logistic centers in 9 countries) and Everest Holdings & Investments PLC (holding of more than 120 commercial companies in the F&B industry). He started his professional career in the Big 5 as an IA Consultant in industries as Manufacturing, Banking, Shipping, Retail and Services.

During his career, he has supported the set up of companies and branches in countries as Albania, Serbia, Romania, Bulgaria, Turkey, Poland, Egypt, Germany, Ukraine, UK, France, Austria and Belgium and he cooperated / coordinated with each country's Tax and Finance Authorities for the respective units' compliance and reporting obligations. In parallel, he has been Manager for the restructuring project of Olympic Air and Neochimiki's new investments.

Marios Menexiadis is a Visiting Professor in France Business School, lecturing Internal Auditing and Controls at the MSc program, Visiting Professor in the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, lecturing business and financial accounting at the MSc program, Visiting Professor in Open University teaching accounting for banks at the MSc program. He also teaches IA & COSO at Epsilon Net.

He represents the ACPAI in the Balkan region as well as the cooperations between the Association and Academic Institutions.

He has been awarded a PhD (excellent) in IA (UOA), an MSc in Internal Auditing & Management (CASS , City University), a MAcc in International Accounting & Financial Management (Glasgow University) and a BSc in Economics (UOA).

He is a Certified Public Accountant (ACPAI), and holds an 'A' class Greek Accounting & Tax License.

He is Member in the General Council at the University of Glasgow and Member at the Audit Committee of the Institute of Internal Auditors (Greece).